ITINERARY / SUGGESTIONS

3 days in Lisbon / 4 days in the Algarve

LISBON HIGHLIGHTS:

Day 1 - on the day of arrival you should proceed to the area of BELÉM: Mosteiro dos Jerónimos (see the cloister), Torre de Belém, Padrão dos Descobrimentos, (Museu Nacional dos Coches), PASTEIS DE BELÉM is a must before return to your hotel.

Day 2 - Walking tour of downtown Lisbon. We suggest that you visit the Castelo de S. Jorge in the Alfama area. It will give you a very beautiful view of the city. In order to appreciate the city to its fullest, you must go to the very typical old areas of Lisbon (Alfama and Bairro Alto). Try the food and experience a fado night in Bairro Alto or Alfama. Enjoy Rossio Plaza and Commerce Plaza. View Lisbon from the elevador de Santa Justa. In the Chiado area (fashion district) go to Café A Brasileira.

Day 3 - Trip to SINTRA. On your way to Sintra go through the coast line of Estoril, Cascais, Guincho, Cabo da Roca till Sintra. Visit one of the palaces. One is downtown Sintra (Vila Palace) the other one is on the very top of the mountain (Pena Palace).

ALGARVE HIGHLIGHTS:

Day 1 - Drive to Cape of Sagres (School of Navigation) and S. Vicent. (light house). Visit Praia da Luz, the city of Lagos. Enjoy the views of D. Ana Beach and the downtown streets of Lagos.

Day 2- Alte. The Algarve typical Moorish village, perhaps the Algarve's most picturesque with narrow glowery streets and 16th century church. There are several hot springs in the same area. Also visit Querença, a small quite village, lost up in the hills.

Day 3 - Visit the area of Monchique (the quaint spa in Caldas proceed to Foia for the magnificent views from the highest point in the Algarve) and Silves (12th century cathedral and a Moorish Castle)

Day 4 - Full day at leisure
